

Jacob Kamenir, Esq.

Senior Director of Business Development & Notice

jkamenir@simpluris.com | 612.578.6673

Jacob brings substantial legal knowledge to Simpluris as Director of Business Development. A former practicing attorney, Jacob offers expertise, strategic advice, and cost-effective solutions to all class action settlement administrations and focuses on consumer and mass arbitration matters.

Prior to joining Simpluris, Jacob worked for Thomson Reuters and practiced law privately. Notable matters Jacob has been involved in at Simpluris include Mendoza, et al., v. ALDI, Inc., et al., Stanford et al v City of Atlanta Georgia, Patellos, et al. v. Hello Products, LLC., and In Re Ambry Genetics Data Breach Litigation.

Jacob earned a Bachelor's in Philosophy from Wabash College and a Master of Science in Industrial Administration from Purdue University's Krannert Graduate School of Management. He earned his Juris Doctor from Mitchell Hamline College of Law and was a "Mitchell Fellow". From 1990-1995 Jacob served in the U.S. Army 3rd Infantry Regiment, "The Old Guard," as part of the official ceremonial presidential honor guard. He is a licensed attorney in the state of Minnesota.

