

Michael Sutherland

Senior Vice President of Business Administration
msutherland@simpluris.com | 321.223.5067

Michael brings more than a decade of experience in the legal administration industry to the Simpluris team. As Senior Vice President of Business Development, Michael is responsible for fostering client relationships and developing comprehensive legal administration roadmaps.

His years of experience in the class action industry allow him to understand the specific needs of clients and provide efficient and cost-effective solutions throughout the settlement administration process. He has notable experience in wage and hour, consumer, remediation, and mass arbitration cases. Michael has successfully worked on and managed many complex cases, including Marko v. DoorDash, Inc., James et al v. Uber Technologies Inc., Diaz et al v. Sea World Entertainment Inc., Busk et al v. Integrity Staffing Solutions Inc. (In re Amazon.com Inc.), Carrington v. Starbucks Corporation, Rimler et al v. Postmates Inc., and Aceves et al v. AutoZone Inc.

Michael received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Florida. He has been a guest speaker at various conferences including CELA's Annual Conference and Bridgeport's Class Action Litigation Conferences.

