As Senior Vice President of Strategic Partnerships, Paul oversees disbursement, taxation, and banking departments while leading business development for corporate remediation.

Prior to Simpluris, Paul served on the leadership team as Principal for SAR Capital Management, where he oversaw regulatory remediation, capital markets servicing and diligence, data product management, legal administration, and strategic servicing management for private equity and public financial services clients. For several years, Paul served as Vice President of Default and Servicing at HSBC Mortgage and Consumer Lending, building and leading operational, strategic, and quality assurance teams through some of the most critical regulatory remediation and compliance activities for bankruptcy, foreclosure, escrow/tax, insurance, short-sale, deed-in-lieu, and billing statements. He managed hundreds of regulatory controls for OCC/FRB consent orders, National Mortgage Settlement, CFPB, and the US Bankruptcy Code, in which his teams consistently achieved "Effective" quality ratings. In addition, he has worked on notable matters related to SEC, FDIC, Department of Labor, and attorney general enforcement actions.

Paul earned his MBA, with honors, from Clarkson University and his BA, with honors, from State University of New York Plattsburgh.
