As Chief Revenue Officer, Patrick manages key client relationships and provides guidance throughout the settlement administration process. Patrick is responsible for the development and implementation of strategic initiatives that foster client engagement. He is a global leader in complex legal administration with more than two decades of experience.

Patrick began his legal career at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP. He handled numerous litigation and bankruptcy matters including key engagements for Calpine Corporation, Tower Automotive, Hollywood Panorama and Tower Records. Prior to joining Simpluris, Patrick was a sales and marketing executive at a leading settlement administration firm and oversaw the growth of the firm from a regional boutique to an international leader in the settlement administration space.

Patrick received his Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School where he was a member of the St. Thomas More Law Honor Society. He received his B.A. from the University of Southern California where he played on the men's varsity volleyball team on an athletic scholarship.
