

Diana Ralph

Vice President of Marketing & Business Development
dralph@simpluris.com | 626.214.5165

Diana brings nearly 20 years of legal marketing and business development experience to Simpluris. As Vice President of Marketing and Business Development, Diana is responsible for the strategy and implementation of initiatives and events that foster Simpluris' relationships.

Prior to joining Simpluris, Diana worked at KCC for more than 10 years. Here, Diana oversaw marketing and business development for the Class Action and Mass Tort lines of the business. Before KCC, Diana held several positions in Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP's marketing department. In addition, Diana interned for JVA Consulting, LLC and assisted with several projects dealing with the "Colorado Compassion Initiative" (granted by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services).

Diana earned her Master in Communication Management from the University of Southern California. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business with an emphasis in Marketing and Bachelor of Arts in Communication from Regis University.

